RETURN POLICY

Due to the fact that each order will be placed as a custom order, we can not accept returns due to the wrong size or color or just not liking what was ordered. Samples are available for viewing and trying on before orders are placed. If the error is on our part we will most definitely correct the problem. Again with repairs and replacment, if there is a defect in a garment that was just purchased we will place the garment. If there is a problem with a garment it needs to be returned promptly. We will ask the question, is the problem a defect in the garment or is the defect from general wear and wash?
