A note from Fr. Michal, our pastor . . .

~ Thanksgiving ~

This week, many of us will celebrate Thanksgiving with our family and friends in warm homes filled with a banquet of turkey, ham, and all the fixings.

An unknown author helps us to remember and be thankful today and tomorrow for:

- ◆ A teenager complaining about doing the dishes . . . because that means they have a home and are not on the streets.
- ◆ The taxes I pay . . . because that means I am employed.
- ◆ The clothes fit a little snug . . . because I have more than enough to eat.
- ◆ That the windows need cleaning and gutters need fixed . . . because I have a home.
- ◆ The alarm goes off in the morning hour . . . because it means that God has given me another day of life.

As we give thanks, may we sit for a moment with a smile knowing that we are safe and content when so many are not. Please pray for those who go without and struggle to balance their lives in times of sickness or despair. We should do well to ponder “how rich we are in the sight of God” for we have hope, not fear; we have freedom, not oppression; and we have opportunity, not despair.

Wishing you and your families a Happy Thanksgiving!!

Thanksgiving Mass will be celebrated on Thursday, November 23, at 9:30am, at Sacred Heart Church. Loaves of bread will be blessed and distributed to everyone at Mass to bring home to their Thanksgiving table. Also, you are invited to bring non-perishable items for the Catholic Charities food pantry and place items in the Thanksgiving display.

All liturgical ministers (Ministers of Holy Communion, Lectors, Ushers, Cantors, Choir, Servers, Sacristans) are asked to join us at Sacred Heart Church for Adoration on Monday, Dec. 4, from 7:00pm to 8:00pm. We realize that the holidays can be a very hectic time; but this will be the perfect opportunity to reflect on the season of Advent and pray.

Advent Reflection on the Birth of Jesus Christ will be held on Tuesdays (Dec. 5, 12, 19), at 12:30pm, at Sacred Heart Church lower level, and again at 6:30pm, at St. Anthony Parish Center. Through classic works of art, music, and Gospel narratives, come explore the Life of Christ from the Annunciation of the angel Gabriel, Visitation of Mary, and the Nativity and Birth of Jesus Christ. Everyone welcome!

Advent Angels ~ Gift bags will again be delivered during the Christmas season to our loved ones who are homebound, sick, or in the nursing home. If you would like to help provide items to fill a gift bag, please bring items to the parish office or place them in the container by the usher's room. Suitable items are soaps, lotions, perfume/cologne, air fresheners, socks, slippers, handkerchiefs, small afghans, small religious picture, statue, picture frame, doily, or basic essentials for everyday use. Please, no candles or food. If you prefer to make a cash donation, place money in an envelope marked "Advent Angels" and put in the collection by Dec. 3.

The parish office will be closed on Thursday, Nov. 23, and Friday, Nov. 24.

During a life emergency, while offices are closed, please contact 217.703.1042 to reach a priest.
